

Jim Dickinson

25th October 2012

Dear Jim Dickinson

Thank you for your request for information dated 27th September 2012 and received on 28th September 2012 concerning Northbrook College.

This request is being handled under the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

In regards to the estimated costs to the College of implementing the changes highlighted in your request, I can confirm Northbrook College estimates this to be £52,000 per annum.

In regards to any papers pertaining to the implementation of these requirements, the College has searched its records and the information you requested is not held by Northbrook.

Northbrook College is not making any changes to EFA or any other non-Skills Funding Agency funding as result of these changes.

In regards to the number of student members of the Northbrook Corporation, I can confirm that two student members are appointed to the Northbrook Corporation.

In regards to the existing methodology to appoint, select and elect student members of the corporation. I can confirm that Northbrook employ a wide range of methods that include advertising for nominations via the Colleges VLE, newsletters, posters, leaflets, written submission of application and an online voting election. I can also confirm that at present there are no actions concerning changing this methodology.

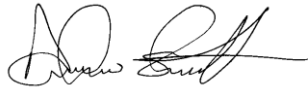

If you are unhappy with the way your request for information has been handled, you can request a review by writing to:
